

Molding Machine Operator/Train Days/Move to Off Shift

Duramax Marine, LLC, an employee-owned global manufacturer of products for the commercial marine industry and various industrial applications, has an immediate opening for a Machine Operator at our Hiram, Ohio location. Duramax Marine is a well-established, successful Northeast Ohio company with a significant global presence and is a technology leader in its markets.

Qualifications

Education	High School Diploma or equivalent.
Experience	The company has a training program in place.
Job Specific Knowledge, Skills & Abilities	Mechanical aptitude.

Key Responsibilities

- Work under the supervision of senior operator for on-the-job instruction and cross-training.
- Understand the introduction of ISO-9001 requirements.
- Able to read and comprehend the production schedule.
- Able to identify correct polymer/adhesive for specific job orders.
- Able to identify function parts of blasting cabinet, parts washer & paint both in Metal Prep
- Able to pull, blast, wash and apply adhesive in Metal Prep
- Able to assemble and run standard tooling in HPI
- Able to identify functional parts of the injections machines, autoclaves, and gas curing oven in HPI
- Able to assemble and run standard tooling in Custom Press
- Able to identify functional parts of rubber presses, rubber mill, warm-up ovens in Custom Press
- Able to finish grind and do a quality inspection of all parts.
- Demonstrate the ability to use all quality instruments
- Able to complete all production paperwork and reporting forms.

Working Conditions

The physical environment requires the employee to work in a hot and cold factory environment. You are required to use personal protective equipment. Must have the ability to lift 50 lbs. May be requested to work overtime and weekends per customer demands.